Analysis of India's performance at Athens Olympics

685. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA: Will the Minister of YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to analyze the causes which were responsible for dismal performance of our 75-strong contingent at the recent Olympics at Athens;

(b) whether it is lack of well-structured organizational support, or lack of discipline or lacklustre role of the foreign and Indian coaches, or non-professional men heading various sports bodies; and

(c) how Government propose to gear itself on all fronts right now so that in the coming Olympics our sportsmen are able to achieve better results?

THE MINISTER OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS (SHRI SUNIL DUTT): (a) and (b) During Athens Olympic Games, Indian sportsperon, Major R.V.S. Rathore won a Silver medal, the first medal won by an individual sportsperson since India's independence. Over the years, the performance of Indian sportspersons in Olympics has been improving.

After Athens Olympic Games 2004, meetings with office bearers of the major National Sports Federations were held to analyze their past performance and discuss their future plan of action for achieving excellence in international events. The Federations were advised to ensure transparency in selection and improvement in quality of training so that performance of the Indian sportspersons improve further in the forthcoming regional and international events.

(c) Government of India, in addition to providing sports infrastructure, is taking the following steps to improve the performance of sportspersons in the international games:-

(i) Finalization & implementation of Long Term Development Plans (LTDPs) for various sports disciplines in consultation with the concerned National Sports Federations, former international sportspersons and sports scientists experts.

(ii) Provisions of equipment and scientific support to sportspersons.
